

Cleveland Architects

Horace B Smith

Birth/Established: 1855 Death/Dissolved: December 19, 1894

Biography:

Horace B. Smith is listed as a practicing architect in Cleveland City Directories from 1885 to 1893. In the 1880 City Directory he is listed as a draftsman with the firm of Heard & Smith. He went into a brief partnership with Joseph Daniels in 1888. He died in Chicago in 1894.

Building List

| Structure | Date | Address | City | State | Statue |
|--|------|-------------------------|---------------|-------|------------|
| Chagrin Falls Union School | 1885 | | Chagrin Falls | OH | Demolished |
| Frank R. Hatfield Residence | 1888 | 5712 Whittier Avenue | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Patrol - Barn | 1889 | 2353 Rockwell Avenue | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Residence for Harriet Benfield | 1890 | 5603 White Avenue | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church | 1890 | 4801 Franklin Boulevard | Cleveland | OH | Standing |
| St. James Anglican Church | 1890 | 1681 East 55th Street | Cleveland | OH | Standing |
| Commercial-Residential Building for Phillip Hart | 1890 | 5905-7 St. Clair Avenue | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Residence for William L. Clements | 1891 | 6215 Central Avenue | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Store for J.H Weidenthal | 1892 | 2173 Ontario Street | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Addition to Aetna Street Disciple Church | 1892 | 6721 Aetna Avenue | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |

Sources:

Cleveland City Directories

Leader December 24, 1894